IMPORTANT

An instalment plan should not be applied for unless the applicant is sure that payments will be kept up. It follows, therefore, that people with limited life expectancy or uncertainty about their financial ability to pay, should not commence an instalment plan. The plan guarantees are not in force until the plan has been fully paid for. See brochure and terms of sale for further details.

All cheques must be payable to 'Funeral Planning Trust' and all instalments paid by Bankers Standing Order.

YOUR RIGHTS TO A REFUND

If, for any reason at all, you decide you do not want your Guaranteed Funeral Plan, you may return the plan documents to Funeral Planning Services Limited and, provided you return them within 28 days of receiving them, you will receive a full refund of all money you have paid without question. If you wish to cancel after 28 days, you are strongly advised to contact Funeral Planning Services Limited to discuss the various alternative options available. Please note – if you do cancel your plan after 28 days from receipt of your documents, Funeral Planning Services Limited have the right to deduct their administrative charges from your refund. These are, currently, £400, £450, £550 for an Economical, Traditional and Classic plan respectively.
